E. BARKSDALE, EDITOR

THE CAMPAIGN CLARION. paign on which we are about entering. the information which it will contain for the enlightenment of the people. Whatever others may do, the conductors of this journal, realizing the magnitude of the interests at stake, intend to perform their whole duty, as they understand it. But theirs will be a paper not fe the politician only. The farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the manufacturer, the preacher, the lawyer, the doctor, will all find in its ample pages, matter to interest, and promote, them, in their several callings. Inducements will be offered to clubs; and especially to those who will interest themselves to extend our circula-

OUR PLATFORM.

ment; no proscription; universal amnesty and Equal Rights before the law to all, denial of Justice to none; no exclusive emoluments or privileges to any class; taxation if it be so modified at the coming elec-benefits of free government, and the fruits citizens," we shall be opposed to black, rich and poor, may enjoy the full of their toil, we will add: Low Taxes and changing it in that essential feature. to the trials and tortures endured by the an economical government.

CARPET-BAGGERS' PLAT-

PROSCRIPTION.-In proof of which, see government. Consequently it means: Disfranchisement;

Class Legislation; Exclusive privileges;

Taxation WITHOUT Representation. The District Commander.

the civil and political rights of all nor any creature. play in the election, but whose report of larations, we propose to meet it on election and they will see. the result, will be credited by the this ground: To nominate original President and Congress, so that when Union Whigs for all the offices State out of the Eggleston concern, and election and to run them on Gen. good men elected to administer the Grant's platform of "the civil and po-of the agitation.

Besides our people will be benefitted The District Commander knows what a test their fortitude and determination to maintain order and preserve says that whenever the people of the And when he, knowing these things, prosperity."

tee of Arrangements inserted else- "cember." and professions of our citizens. With loyal sentiment." the spirit displayed by the Committee, there can be no such word as fail.

REMOVAL OF DR. R. H. WINTER .-Marshalship, is a cause of regret to April 7th, 1869. the entire public of this State. A true | Once "rejected" says Gen. Grant, in the land.

vention in which the conservative Dein the borders of the State. The move- less to hold office! ment is timely; but the day cannot be plosions,

The Elections in Virginia and Mis-

The Washington Chronicie, te Administration organ makes the following important statement, which is presumed to be by authority:

thority conferred upon him by the recent act propositions with a view to their rebers to THE CLARION, for the cam- There will be a new registration. The clauses jection, and the securing of "the civil We want FIFTY THOUSAND subscri- of Congress, on the fourth Thursday of May. ted to a separate vote, are: First, the test- Logan H- Roots, carpet-bagger, playthat every voter will have access to stitution may be submitted to a separate kansas. That our readers may see gust; and that this accords with the success. It should go to every neighborhood, oath; second, disfranchisement; third, couning the role of representative from Arvote, provided good reason therefor is how bitterly the class of Proscription-to be submitted separately for a like was pending. confers upon the Governor the power the lachrymal parts of the oration : to appoint the Judges in violation of Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts-1 yield two

The whole thing is a crude and intually secure the civil and political rights of absurdities; but by skillful manipula- upon this important bill. It was a deep stab. tion can be made tolerable until op-Which means restoration of civil govern- portunity is offered thoroughly to perfeet it. But to avoid misconstruction, it is well to state with emphasis that, It is our rock and strong defence.

A Forlorn Hope.

Franchise clause. No. 7, of the Eggleston it attempts to get up dissension be- the wrath of their present haters and ene Constitution, permanently establishing test tween "Union Whigs and Secession office a large class of capable and meritorious citizens irrespective of party, who are and outrageous proscriptions to which nevertheless saddled with the burthens of they have all alike been subjected It may be fortunate for our people cible element, and bound them togeth- the constitutions by offering by piece-meat. after all, that the District Commander er with bands stronger than iron. In Sults We man get a constitution with all that after all, that the District Commander er with bands stronger than iron. In sults, We may get a constitution with all that stronger the grave in which their hopes were is a strict Republican. Some of his the grave in which their hopes were the grave in which their countries and a few other establishment. appointments from the character of the buried, there too are buried their quar- sential parts left out, and they will present men receiving them, may be, and rels. In a common suffering, and the the same appearance as Shakespeare's famous sions created on the credulous minds doubtless are, "causes of irritation," presence of common dangers, their but these mere temporary arrange- union is perfect; their harmony is de- If the Pilot and the rest of the carments are trivial compared to the im- lightful! It is to be broken neither pet-baggers don't think the Conservaportance of securing a permanent gov- by principalities nor powers, nor tives are in earnest in planting themernment deriving its powers from the things present nor things to come, nor selves on the Grant platform of the of all others for the exercise of the consent of the governed and "securing height nor depth, nor carpet-bagger, "civil and political rights of all," in new government, there will be an end litical rights of every citizen." This "and let us have peace.".

Gen. Grant, in his special message, and violence, in spite of every tempta- erned; and the violation, by our rulers nature, is more promising. tion—theirs will be the triumph. It of the great fundamental right dear to and will effectually remove every sem- citizens within the borders of the It is a confession by his own party of sake of expediency. It will not do to pledge contained in the recent law of ize on this liberal basis, he advises voters. that elections be held early enough to | The Okolona News, (Republican)

gone to work in earnest with a view made, all accept this basis of settle- man who was defeated and afterwards body. to holding a State Fair in this City in ment, and the time of effecting it, ex- appealed to Congress against the ver-October next. To carry out this ob- cept the Eggleston party of carpet- diet of the people, is not fit to be run ject, considerable means will be re- baggers who framed a constitution for the office. This is a fifth-ribber .quired; and the committee have directly the reverse of it, and who Will Eggleston and his friends rest set the example themselves by have persistently refused to endorse it, under this sentense? subscribing liberally. We are sure though it is recommended by Gen. that it will be followed by all classes Grant, the representative of the "truly |

constitution framed by a convention of the gentleman, honest, conscientious, and and that's just what Gen. Gillem re-STATE CONVENTION .- Several of our constitution was "rejected" and more cotemporaries have declared for a Con- over that it ought to have been, bemocracy and liberal Republicans may political equality of all men." It demeet on the common ground of recon- nied to such original, consistent and for the "tail." struction on the basis of opposition to life-long opposers of secession as Judge disfranchisement, and in favor of a Wm. Yerger, Judge Amos R. Johnconstitution that will secure the civil ston, Judge H. F. Simrall et al, even and political rights of all citizens with their inalienable rights to vote, much named until the issuance of the Presi- The richest part of the bogus evi- features of the new constitutional dent's proclamation. Only "let us have dence of the Committee of Five before peace," and no more fire-cracker ex the Congressional Committee, is yet at the same time that the disfranchise- by frost to the cotton crop, and that to come.

Protest and Lament of a Representative Carpet-Bagger.

The member of Congress put forward by the Eggleston party to protest against the recommendation of the President that the people of the unre-It is understood that the President will constructed States be permitted to order the election in Virginia, under the au- vote separately on the disfranchising of the Constitution, which will be submit- and political rights of all," was one ists represented by him, deprecated the Inasmuch as the President has made recommendation of the Presidentprecisely the same recommendation in how they insisted that contrary to his the case of Mississippi, as to Virginia. advice the proposed constitution should we infer that he will apply the same be submitted "as an entirety," and not rule to both in conducting the election, "by piece-meal"-how they said that the first and most important feature of his recommendation, if embodied in the which is the submission of the test form of law, "will present the appearoath clause to a separate vote, so as to ance of the play of Hamlet with Hamgive the people an opportunity to let left out"-we will copy from the Globe the speech which he delivered There are other features that ought when the measure of the President purpose; and chief among them, the The reader who wants neither to Militia clause; and the clause which be amused nor disgusted, will pass over the rights of the people to elect them. | minutes to the gentlemen from Arkansas. | Mr. Roots-Mr. Speaker: I think that every man who loves his country and longs for her peace and quietude, should feel digested jumble of contradictions and aroused to the necessity of prompt action The loyal suffering Mississippian, anxious-ly looking toward this body for an action of anguish that would wring from his disappointed hopes an exclamation of: "Et

Residents of the North, whose loyalty to tion as to embrace the principle of country and freedom has cost them nothing And to the end that all persons, white and lack, rich and poor, may enjoy the full citizens," we shall be opposed to of immediate action. I do not now occupy the time of this body with even an allusion the time of this body with even an allusion by the remember it is a grave, very grave respon-sibility, to leave them longer without an remitting to the people the right of with reference to the Natchez and loyal men of the South. But all here should opportunity to make one more effort to place self-government, "as promptly as pos- Jackson Road shall be held at Ray- cur. hemselves under the dominion of Republi-The Pilot is on a cold trail when can governments. Oh, sirs, whilst those sible.' men are suffering from the hot tempest of mies, do not, do not, I pray of you, put upon them an additional trial by a cold and piercing

For my part I do hope that the President in his good wisdom will have each constituion submitted as an entirety. The constitu-(excepting of course Gen. Longstreet, tions as framed by the Conventions of those States were done in conventions composed influence, if they attempt to exercise Joe. Brown and a few others who have of delegates chosen by the people, Republi been taken into especial favor by the cans and Democrats. Loyal men and late it, is due to general causes which will rebels, all took a part in framing these conpowers that be,) have fused them into one compact, solid, impenetrable, invintet it not go to such an extent as to now slice up ger the election is postponed, the contradistinction to the Radical nity seem so much to dread. citizens." The prime object therefore Inasmuch as the Pilot professes an policy of Proscription as embodied in is to have a District Commander who interest in the "Union Whigs," and in the franchise clause of the Eggleston will not only see that all have fair token of the good faith of our own dec- constitution, let them wait until the ists, appalled by the defeat which they have their "action reported to Con- calls for a change of ticket. It is By the proceedings of the Commit- "gress on the first Monday of De- down on the Eggleston arrangement. It virtually admits that it is not the ernment, with those who represent the where, it will be seen that they have So far as expressions have been winning card; and concedes that the spirit of persecution which they em-

If the people were right in defeating the Eggleston party last summer "I desire also, to ask the consideration of because they attempted to force a pro-Congress to the question whether there scriptive constitution upon them, are is not just ground for believing that the the Eggleston party any more worthy The removal of this excellent, upright people of Mississippi for that State, and once of consideration or support since the and competent officer from the U.S. REJECLED. &c."-Gen. Grant's Message President and Congress passed sentence

VIRGINIA .- It is telegraphed that garding their State, and call on the News. President to submit the obnoxious amendment to the people, declaring gia say that material damage was done zeal which promises success. ment section will be voted down.

we may advance in regard to the time decision of the matter, one way or the reasonably anticipated, in view of the Spirit of the People and the Press! other, and we are not inclined to hold important interest with reference to a profitless controversy with the Pilot which it assembled; still it was a good on the subject. But we insist that if meeting and it inaugurated an imthe agricultural interests of the State portant movement. The attendance are consulted, the election will be or- was not large, but every profession dered in the interval of the laying by and occupation were represented by and gathering of the crops, between active, earnest men, who have comthe 15th of July and the 10th of Au- menced the work in the true spirit of ing of his recommendation is to have idle. It was once the custom to pered to Congress sometime during the benefit them, but that was the day contradicted by the language of the en mold-board plows. As well argue

We do not suppose that any opinion

ed before the last of the month?

of influencing the votes of freedmen tee. is too paltry to merit notice. Their operate as effectually at one season as of the uninformed. If there is any thing in the time, reasons are not wanting to show that the season named by the Pilot is the one most favorable influence which the carpet-bag frater-

The Next Dodge.

It is suspeted that the Proscriptionreceived at the polls last year and by Our advice to our friends is invari- the indignant repudiation of their conably to select capable men to office if duet by the President of their own the disfranchising clauses are crushed and federal, to be filled at the coming they have opportunity, but as between choice, will profess to abandon in the a carpet-bagger who is imbued with pending canvass the disfranchising pro- this testimony by which the carpet- terms, which though not such as our free hate towards them and advocates pro- visions of the proposed constitution. baggers relied to foist themselves on mestic government infinitely superior to scription, and a colored man, however But this dodge will not win, so long the people as their rulers, through those of our reconstructed sisters; and which proposition cannot but effect "recon- illiterate, who is opposed to the dis- as they insist on filling the Executive Congressional interference, contrary compared with the abominations contentstruction on a loyal basis." Is it ac- franchisement of whites as proposed office, the Legislature, Congress, the to the will of the registered voters. plated by the Eggleston faction, are as dews by the testimony of a rigid Republican cepted? If so, let the bond be signed. Iranchisement of which are letter the iniquitious scheme was in the Eggleston Constitution, make Rench, and the county offices, with It is true the iniquitious scheme was rus. Our choice is between this offer and choice of the latter. Doubtless in the authors and champions of the defeated, but its authors are bent upon the Eggleston essence. some localities these alternatives will scheme, who unscrupulously sought to accomplishing it indirectly if not openly: gain through Congressional interven- and by the light of these documents cable. The first is, that we propose to the Rethe peace, are undergoing, by the sud- unreconstructed States are ready to From the information we have re- tion the objects in which they failed, at the spirit in which they will rule the den vacation of three thousand offices "protect all their citizens in the full ceived, our opinion is that about the polls. It will not avail to profess State is revealed, should they succeed. example, or any gentleman of his social in the State, with "less than one thou- enjoyment of freedom and security, it same acreage has been applied to the opposition to the atrocious scheme It will avail nothing to expel the standing and kindly feeling to all the people sand persons who can qualify to fill is certainly desirable that all causes of culture of cotton the present year as which they originated and persisently disfranchising clauses from the constithem"-that many communities in irritation should be removed as last. The growth of the plant is not championed until Gen. Grant himself tution, if its authors with their conconsequence, are practically without promptly as possible, that a more so forward owing to the unfavorable put his heel upon it, if they seek to fessed rancor towards the great mass tion singled out by the President, and with law-that his military force is but a perfect union may be established and ness of the season. But refreshing accomplish by indirection what they of our white population be chosen to us for the rest of it; we to offer no opposihandful located here at the Capital. the country be restored to peace and rains have fallen, and if they are not failed, after the most unscrupulous administer the State government. excessive, and the weather continue fa- means, to achieve it openly. An Egglebears testimony to the peaceful and The "causes of irritation" referred vorable the seed which have lingered ston ticket for the State offices-for orderly conduct of the people—to the to are military rule instead of govern- in the soil will germinate and grow off the Legislature—for Congress to missupremacy of self-control over passion ment based on the consent of the gov- rapidly. Corn being a plant of hardier represent and malign the great body this State, is published elsewhere. As test oath, in order to meet all possible control over passion ment based on the govof our resident white population before no Legislature has been permitted by the world and to oppress them with will be the testimony of an officer the Anglo-Saxon, of representation The declaration of the Okalona grevious taxation-will mean proscrip- years in this State, these laws passed Three good reasons point to this cour self will dare not impuga. It will poses such "constitution as will secure gleston who is to be made the scape- clauses, which the Destructives will expose the catumnies of their accusers, the civil and political rights of all the goat of the Convention, is significant. probably profess to abandon for the tive legistation and the violation of the "readiness" of the people to re organ- and his associates by the registered propositions which failed of accomplishment through the agency of others, in spite of their authors, and at the same time seek to fill thelaw-making and executive departments of the gov-

Overboard!

The Okolona News proposes a new man as the Radical candidate for Governor. What's the matter with Eggleston? He has committed no greater offence than the rest of the less "than one thousand" Radicals who are described by the Pilot as qualified for office. Is there to be a new deal all around? Are the Conventioners all to be thrown overboard? If not, why banish him, and run the old candidates of the Proscriptionists for the other offices, State, Legislative and Congres-The Pilot, organ of the Convention- sional? If this is the game, the ostrascrupulously exact in all his dealings, ported, and precisely the reverse of ists, continues its flings at Messrs Jef- cism of Eggleston individually, will public and private, it is to be lamented what the Committee of Five swore to. fords, Tindall and others, and says, satisfy nobody, and amount to nothing. that he has fallen a victim to the spirit The President with all the facts before that they are the "tail of the Demo- If "Proscription is to be made odiof partisan proscription which is rife him, including the affidavits of Gibbs cratic kite." We would not be sur- ous," public justice claims more than & Co., decides, that Gillem's report prised if the Pilot party yet seeks by the immolation of Eggleston. It is was correct. He says the proposed their assistance, to be lifted out of the true, he was the head of Committee of mire into which their advocacy of odi- Sixteen who hovered around Congress ous measures has plunged them. This for four months to carry out the procause it did nor "secure the civil and may be an agreeable arrangement for gramme of the Committee of Fivethe Proscriptionists, but it will be bad and it is true, that he was the presiding officer and figure-head of the Mongrel Convention, but what could he have done without the others ?-the Virginia press with great unanim- They are all equally guilty and must ity accept the reconstruction law rego under, according to the logic of the Telegrams from Alabama and Georreplanting will be necessary.

THE RAILROAD MEETING

This meeting on Saturday was not of holding the election will affect the all that could have been wished, and Words spent in describing the utili-The Pilot argues that the true mean- ty of railroads at this late day, are message, which advises the holding of that food and air are necessary to anithe election "during the month of May mal existence as that railways are esconstitution, or parts thereof, as shall and prosperity of communities.

tution to be submitted "on the first competing interests, but the advanta- of genuine "peace," it says : Monday," if the election is not order- ges of location are here, if our citizens We do not care a fig as to who shall hold to remove all causes of irritation," by once. It is proposed that a meeting Conservative voters of the State. mond,at an early day. And another in Excellent Letter from Gen. Wm. R. The suspicion that the suggestion of the interest of the Valley Road at Ver-THE CLARION is based on the idea that non or Livingston. Of these meetings at hand that is to settle our future. Let us the planters will have greater power notice will be given by the Commit- meet it with calmness.

Gnly "One Thousand."

The Pilot is abusing Congress be cause it did not pass the bill removing civil disabilities, and to make its point | proposed constitution. as strong as possible against that body. it says that there are "three thousand offices to fill in Mississippi, and not in favor of accepting the condition in good "one thousand to fill them with." "Not faith. There can be no wrong in giving to administration with as much interest as do Head and explain its above to the one thousand out of sixty or seventy the whole country the benefit of a privilege one thousand out of sixty or seventy the whole country the benefit of a privilege Union, and we will make no unfounded or confident that the goal make the people of any State in the American sive provisions to the provisions to the people of any state in the American sive provisions to the people of any state in the people of any state in the people of any state in the loval! Here we have an honest dee- ment, the best government we can get. We laration at last. The number estima- want the repose, and security, and confited at less than "one thousand," is de- dence that a State government alone can signed to embrace for the most part the carpet-bag adventurers who advo- ground, and bring about this desired result? cate disfranchisement. The others, who are considered by the Convention organ as not fit to hold office, are the colored citizens. They are the rank nies the foregoing with a well considand file whose business it is to do the ered article entitled, "Let us have voting, and on whose shoulders the peace," the spirit of which meets our less than one thousand are to ride into | concurrence, and from which we copy

The Bogus Testimony.

An important military Order, modiour rulers to meet for more than two petent and reliable. affairs from the present, have not received the attention which the public to the execution of the Order!

By a large majority the voters of the State defeated what the N. Y. Tribune styles the "odious policy of disfranitution, and the candidates who fusal safely try. red and its proscriptive spirit. Their active has been recognized and tridiabolical spirit which it breathed. To abandon the one, and yet insist upon Public Meeting in Marshall Conuty the other, will be a shallow artifice. The names which are connected with ter city, connecting with the Central the readers of the THE CLARION: Road and passing through Yazoo City. We can well understand how Yazoo excellent facilities for transportation on motion, Dr. T. L. Duniap was called to the Chair, and W. C. Pegues requested to by water with Vicksburg, it is not so act as Secretary.

On motion, Gen. W. S. Featherston proclear how she is to be profitted by the proposed enterprise. Its projectors, the object of the meeting. He stated that the citizens of our county had not assemble to the citizens of our citizens of our citizens of features. But feet assured that the President of the Company of the features. But feet assured that the President of the Company of the return home this Spring.

Ex-President Jefferson Davis intends to eturn home this Spring.

THE CANVASS OPENED!

THE FIRST GUN!!

erston, at the conclusion of his remarks, and adopted, that the Chairman appoint a committee of five to draw up resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The The people of Rankin have opened the ball in carnest. The following inchairman appointed as said committee : Gen. W. S. Featherston, Dr. W. M. Compton, Dr. T. J. Malone, Col. Jno. B. Faut and Maj. Wm itial movement is announced in the Brandon Republican of the 15th : Upon the retirement of the Committee, a People's Convention. prominent citizens, we call a meeting of the the Hou. J. W. C. Watson, (who had recentpeople of Rankin, irrespective of color, or former political associations, to meet at the Court House, in Brandon, on Saturday next, the 17th inst., to take counsel together, and to determine upon our future action in reference to the reconstruction of Mississippl the election held and the result report- suade people that railroads would under the new reconstruction bill. Let every man come who can come, and let the old session "which commences on the first before telegraphs were invented, and the ball in motion. Our salvation depends Monday of December." But this is when fields were cultivated with wood- upon prompt and speedy action. The white and the black man is alike interested in the result, and we therefore call upon all to atend this preliminary meeting.

The Republican accompanies this or June next," in order that "such sential to the material development call with a forcible appeal to all who are opposed to the proscriptive policy with marked attention. He clased, by rehave been adopted by the people, be Nor is it worth while to argue that of the Eggleston party, to be up and submitted to Congress on the FIRST these particular roads ought to be built. doing. It also proposes a State Con-"MONDAY OF DECEMBER." This lan- They will be built. The real ques- vention for organization; and in token its meaning. Now, how is the constiand those along the contemplated routes the offices-whether they are old Whigs. It will require several months after will arouse themselves from their old Democrats, or moderate Republicans, so the election to assemble the Legisla- sluggishness and turn them to good they are honest and capable, and opposed featherston, offered the following resolutions which were unautomatic advantage. The loyal suffering Mississippian, anxiously looking toward this body for an action of fostering care, had a right to feel a depth of anguish that would wring from his disapmission of the State. Gen. Grant's adopted. It is believed that they acrecommendation for prompt action cord with the wishes of every person nominated by the Conservatives, on a Conwas based upon his desire to restore within the corporate limits of this servative platform. We owe them a debt of whereas, the people of this county in comthe said States " to their proper rela- town. The Committee of Arrange- gratitude for their untiring and successful efforts to defeat the schemes of Eggleston, orderly and law-abiding under all circumtion to the government" as early as ments are expected to take the matpracticable. "It is desirable (he said) ters intrusted to them in hand at warded with an honorable position by the In these sentiments, we entirely con- in the enforcement of the laws, and the pres-

Editor Yazoo Democrat:—The day is close

Acting on the President's recommendation, Congress has passed a bill enabling desirable object.

Resolved, That the irreducen of this the people of Mississippi to adopt a State government, and if the telegraph may be relied on, we will have the opportunity to reject all the objectionable sections of the give. Cannot the entire population then,

The Mississippi Democrat accompa-

the following extracts: "Gen. Grant and Congress have emphati- fraternal feeling which should exist an cally repudiated the policy of the extreme We will resume the publication of Mississippi Radicals, and offer to the State loubtless in all other counties, who are com-

whose word even Beast Butler him- with taxation. For this rule, he pro- News against the nomination of Eg- tion, as clearly as the disfranchising under a wholly different condition of First, it will rid the canvass of that spirit of interests required. The present reductioning will most seriously interfere with blance of pretence for further vindie. State." In order to put to the test the the judgment recorded against him profess penitence for the disfranchising tion of taxes will be generally applantation work, at a time in our business affairs when the making of a good crop is of there will be no formidable opposition victory. Third, if our overtures are rejectpossible for the assuagement of party strife. ement" embodied in the rejected This last accomplished, we can in case of re-

The second plan, which is to make a clear constitution, shorn of such features as the umphantly endorsed by a Republican President may question, with a corps of can-President and a Republican Congress. didates selected without exception from our Manassas of the struggle against Radical Now we are anxious to see if the own racks, still choosing those who can baffled Proscriptionists will presume amendment, its provisions are already fixed again to urge their pet scheme, and upon the South; let it not stand in our way. take the bone from the the election of the men to office who but leave to the North to reject or swallow concocted it and who represented the as they may see fit, the medicine which was

We note that the head of the defeated the proceedings copied below attest public meeting on Saturday, the 1st of ticket the chief representative of the that the assemblage was in truth, a May, accompanied with a stirring ap-"odious policy" has snuffed the danger meeting of the real people. In the pre- peal by a "reconstructionist" on During the severe afar off and has taken refuge in the siding officer we recognize a former office of Assessor of the 2nd District. influential member of our Legislature -in the chief spokesman a citizen of "work." "Away (says the writer) We learn from the Exam A meeting was held at Vicksburg, worth and ability-and in the Chair- with narrow minded, selfish, one idea a mostling to take into consider on Saturday last, of citizens of Yazoo man of the Committee on Resolutions, and the City of Vicksburg to consider Gen. W. S. FEATHERSTON, an honored the project of a Railway from the lat- name which needs no introduction to

From the Holly Springs Reporter. Pursuant to previous notice given in the made the terminus of a Railway con- county convened at the Court Room in Holnecting with the Central, but having 12 M. Monday, April 12th, 1869, at however, have undertaken it with a bled for any political purpose, but to counsel with a sel together, as lovers of law and order, in be shorn of its objectionable and oppressive tent of their ability to promote the company.—N. O. Times been in the past, and prove to the country | the clauses separated that the could be a law unto themselder. F. pald a handsome and deserved compliment to the people of Marshall county of both colors; that there was not anywhere may be able to you tionable feature.

representative to endeavor to thwart umstances by which we are now surrounded

The Work Before Is.

ote their energies to the work of self p

" among the farrily of States."

From the Vicksburg Herald.

"our people."

A resolution was offered by Gen. Feather ailed at some length the doings of the gen conservatives of the State; gave an inter- so regard ; esting account of the Interviews with President Grant, and different members of Congress; stated that the feelings of all parties vere softening towards the Southern people; that now, more than at any other time. Constitute it was the duty of the citizens of the State parts—as to be orderly and quiet; that though our county was deprived by Congressional leg-islation of nearly all its officers, we must show that we were a pence-loving and or-der-loving community. Mr. W. proceeded for apwards of an hour, and was listened to marking that since he left Washington, Con-gress had passed a bill providing for the reislons of the bill he did not yet know, and sould not, therefore, advise his fellow-citizens what course to pursue in the premises: to : nent and good sense, that they had met the avenues of escape for Committee, through its Chairman, General sense of this meeting, it is the duty of all that will we cannot see ervation of good order, and more especially loss this become our duty under the cir-

n our present anomalous condition.

Be it further Resolved, That we will conto all good citizens to heartily co-operate distant day. preservation of good order, and we appeal with us in the accomplishment of this most | man to go to work county and of this State, are entitled to great commendation for their orderly con-

"Democrats and liberal Republicans the Comberland Presi-"(white and colored.) be up and at newly framed -- Gazette men who would destroy their coun- plan by which they might raise try to carry out their radical schemes! amount of money, to purchase of the city bonds to be layed for Vote down the objectionable clauses ing of a Branch Railroad to cot city with the Mobile & Ohio Railro in the constitution and adopt the bal-THE JACKSON RAILBOAD ance, and let the State take her place Directors.-The gentleme

With the lights before it, the Cen- were re-elected yesterday by a lority. The votes of the city tral Star advises "the hearty co-oper- shares, that of the State on "ation of our people with this attempt were all received under pro "(the new law) to settle the status of several votes were east by the and the overwhelming vote of the tion certain. The gentlemen elected are all we